Hi Kris, just wanted to say hi and let you know I haven't died! Still busy relocating and such. Move next week, been "training" for the last 3. I wanted to let you know that I have been in conversation with "Rowan Lefwyn" over the last several weeks and I find her insight compelling. I've often asked her why I haven't seen her converse with you. She seems to think that you are "missing a few things when it comes to natural law" I would very much like for you to engage with her, as I think both of you could learn from one another. Just a thought! Hope you are well. I will be in touch down the road. Thanks again for all you do!

hey

i saw one of her posts in new age bs, she has her own view, i had issues with her angle as well does she have work for me to read or look at?

ill try to find that post

have a good move, take care

here it is

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/689773591063088/permalink/827143147326131/>

i agree with much of it

il have to reread it

8/15, 6:02pm

Scott Seaton

She has written a non fiction book, that I haven't yet read but I would love to see you two engage. It would be interesting I'm sure. We are all in this together and there is just so much pointless bickering going on FB

8/15, 6:02pm

Kris Nelson

my first impression was an attitude thing, but ill have to reread

from the comments

thats where the misunderstandings start lol

8/15, 6:04pm
Scott Seaton

yeah... I think she thinks the same thing, but that is a sign of confidence in my opinion, for both of you!

8/15, 6:04pm
Kris Nelson

what are the issues i have with natural law? or that you have? or others have?

8/15, 6:05pm
Scott Seaton

I will let her explain her position. I am still learning from "all" of you!

8/15, 6:05pm
Kris Nelson

she should start a blog

webpage

8/15, 6:05pm
Scott Seaton

No angerd

8/15, 6:05pm
Kris Nelson

something

and put her coneptions out

conceptions

8/15, 6:07pm
Scott Seaton

agreed, and I am pretty sure she has done such in the past. She is a "writer". Anyway this is just a challenge for both of you. I think it will be beneficial.

No EGO's! lol

8/15, 6:09pm
Kris Nelson

so far its only me defending something she views as wrong

no thx

8/15, 6:10pm
Scott Seaton

hmmm.. Kris, where do you get that?

why such a "slammed door?"

8/15, 6:11pm
Kris Nelson

you talk to her

and you say she has good understanding, but doesnt agree with something aboutmy understandingof natural law

so i ask you what her position is, and you prefer for her to speak for herself

i prefer if you can tell me what her position is you spoke to her

give me some background

so far, its not me going into the conervation with anything other than you telling me she know things, and doesnt like a particular aspect of my understanding of natural law

so for me, not too interesting

see?

8/15, 6:13pm
Scott Seaton

wow Kris, why such resistance? I really am not into personality conflicts. I just made a suggestion. What is between you two? I never seen one interaction. Whatever. I still love ya bro!

8/15, 6:14pm
Kris Nelson

do you, scott, have knowledge or her criticism, or have some of your own? you contacted me. but she has not. she could, i have contact on my site, etc

so we talk

yup sall good

im explaining

8/15, 6:16pm

Scott Seaton

agreed... I just thought I would be a bridge for growth in the "community" but for some weird reason, you both seem very hesitant to get together. I just thought my recommendation would be enough! Oh well. No biggie!

8/15, 6:17pm

Kris Nelson

"I find her insight compelling. I've often asked her why I haven't seen her converse with you. She seems to think that you are "missing a few things when it comes to natural law" I would very much like for you to engage with her" and i asked you what she knows, whats her jist ya know... since you like her insights... and then you talk about how she wont talk to me because she has issues withmy work...

8/15, 6:18pm

Kris Nelson

inthe quote, not after well its like i was explaining you contacted me, sometimse i conact people on FB, friend request them etc.

but she hasnt

thats what i was explaining

but you took it all some other way

8/15, 6:18pm

Scott Seaton

so what!

8/15, 6:19pm

Kris Nelson

so tell me then

what are her insights you like?

please elaborate

8/15, 6:19pm

Scott Seaton

I am introducing... that's all! No curiosity? We are all quite rare. It is not my job to speak for her or you.

8/15, 6:20pm

Kris Nelson

indeed

8/15, 6:20pm

Scott Seaton

This energy is quite weird from both of you.

8/15, 6:21pm

Kris Nelson

did you read the post i sent you?

8/15, 6:21pm

Scott Seaton

Seems like ego games. I think both of you and so many others are quite brilliant, and I was just trying to be a bridge!

8/15, 6:22pm

Kris Nelson

8/15, 6:22pm

Scott Seaton

No, Give me a mn. and I will

that may be the problem

8/15, 6:23pm

Kris Nelson

is she talking to people like me in that post? is that why she has an issue with my work, because i am one who fits that description?

this is what i see behind what you expressed to me in your single message earlier, this is an underlying pattern connection i submit she does think of mem as one who fits that description, as such would be her claims of:

"She seems to think that you are "missing a few things when it comes to natural law""

so immediately, you can see how i reluctant to want to engage in a conversation with her,p lease show me a post which display her insights that you like

8/15, 6:34pm

Scott Seaton

There is definate reason to suspect that she is referring to you in that post. So what. I would think that you would be happy to engage someone with such opinions on this topic! She is one of the few it seems, who even considers such things! Why aren't you happy to engage and question/challenge your understanding? This should be embraced. No, I have no post of hers, I have only conversation of a more esoteric nature. That is not the point. I just simply suggested that you converse! You seem to be getting defensive because you think she is referring to you! And she on the other hand, is avoiding contacting you directly! This is what is so weird to me and why I made the simple suggestion. It becomes more weird by the moment. Couldn't you, or her just said sure, we seem to be avoiding each other for some unknown reason

8/15, 6:35pm

Kris Nelson

do you choose who you talk to?

i do

8/15, 6:36pm

Scott Seaton

come on Kris

8/15, 6:37pm

Kris Nelson

if someone displays patterns of thought that interest me, i will contact them, if ppl contact me, i may engage them further as well, if i dont contact someone theni dont, if i dont like the jib of their actions and speech ont oeh net, then i haveb no interest either

so as yourself, why do you keep pushing this?

if you are intersting in conversing with her, then please go ahead

i am not trying to get you to stop or engage someone else

i understand what you said

but now, why the persistence in this matter?

i choose what i do, i dont talk to konstantine dracolayer, and you could tell me the same things about him and make the same case

it comes down to: i have better things to do shows me what she has

u have a site

like this convo is gettinglong i find in me having to explain mylse, f i could have just ignored everything from the beginnig

but i have respect forcertain ppl and i explainmyself

8/15, 6:39pm

Scott Seaton

No persistence Kris. Just answering your questions and statements. I really couldn't care less anymore what the problem is with two "like" minds exploring an important topic!

8/15, 6:39pm

Kris Nelson

this happened withj michael kovach the other day utoo

long long convo

so you and her, are like m inds, explore it, im not stopping you oro making such statements as you just did...

8/15, 6:46pm

Scott Seaton

Kris, I'm not sure what has just ocured, but you seem to be very angry with all the "group" people. If you will note, I have very little to do with any "group" activity for the last 3 wks. and since I only got onto FB 4wks ago.... you figure it out. Yes, I am very selective with who I converse, and I thought you knew that! I admire and respect what you do and your insight. I was simply trying to introduce you to someone. Now you are getting antagonistic with me? "you could have just ignored everything?" WOW Take a breather buddy, I am your friend!

8/15, 7:03pm

Kris Nelson

you not sure what just occurred, and then the "group" people? what?

yes i could have ignored everything, do you think i dont forsee these conversations going overboard because you dont understand? you try to push someting, i say not, then you push more, and then you project onto me that im in ego... let it go

i respect certain people and dont ignore the issues they bring forth, i dont engage every single issue i come across, i explained my position and you still dont like it, oh well, what you want me to do about your issue look it comes down to step up and contact who you want to contact, if she wants to she can you contacted me, there you go, if i say her work and wanted to say something, then i would be able to do so, so can she, let her do her thing, and stop all this imaginary bullshti your goinon about lol

saw her work
